DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 3, 4, 6, and 7 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 8. However, claim 11 recites the same limitations as non-elected claim 6, and claim 12 recites the same limitations as non-elected claim 7. Therefore, claims 11 and 12 have been withdrawn as being drawn to a nonelected species.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore the Election/Restrictions made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 2, 5, 8-10, and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kondo et al.

Kondo discloses a full coverage area W1-W3 (see figure 15) comprising an oscillation chamber 12, an inlet aperture 11 with throat B in an upstream end plate, an outlet aperture 13 with throat D in a downstream end plate, the end plate with a diameter dimensioned as $W+2Y$, a distance between the inlet and the outlet as L, a basic toroid flow pattern with diametrically opposed cross sections F3 and F4 (see figures 7a-7c), the apertures 11 and 12 with sharp edges (e.g. 12e, 12f), and the dome shaped down stream end plate (see figure 9).

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. 5,769,624 to Luxton et al. is cited to show a full coverage area spray nozzle.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed March 24, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 2, 5, and 8-11 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
